

Charles Rossi of Phred's Drug in Cranston has significantly improved our medication distribution system by creatively managing the medication and treatment needs of over 200 individuals with developmental and related disabilities. His "do what it takes" attitude to assist our nursing staff to further our mission of empowering people with differing abilities to claim and enjoy their right to dignity, respect, equality, and choice, is a great benefit to everyone we serve. We are most grateful to Charles.